LOWEST PRICES

IN PAST FOUR YEARS

Further Reduction in Prices of Wheat, Corn and Oats—Sharp Break in Stock Prices on N. Y. Exchange.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Lowest prices in four years prevailed yesterday for all options of wheat, corn and oats on the Chicago board of trade. The new prices represented declines of six to seven cents for wheat and two or three for corn and oats under Monday's prices. Wheat was 33 to 34 cents lower yesterday than it was a week ago and corn quotations were less than one-half what they were six months ago. The December option in wheat closed at 1.77 to 1.78; December corn 78 cents; and December oats 49 cents.

Coincident with the new low prices in wheat came announcement from Minneapolis millers of declines in family rates to new low points. The price dropping below $10 a barrel for the first time in nearly four years. Lower corn prices were followed by declines in pork—"finest corn." Heavy receipts, aggregating 100,000 animals in 24 markets, were declared to be one of the causes of the decline in pork.

Stock Market Stagnant.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The stock market broke sharply again yesterday, some 60 odd issues of the industrial and special varieties falling to lowest prices of the year.

United States steel declined on heavy holdings to 82 1/2, the lowest for that stock since 1917.

Mexican petroleum was the weakest feature of the day's dealings, making a net loss of 10 points. Other oils, also steel, equipment, motors, rails and many unclassified shares lost 1 to 5 points. Total sales approximated 1,375,000 shares, the largest turn over in many weeks.

JURY ACQUITS LIQUOR MEN.

Refuses to Convict Them of Operating Moonshine Still.

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—The first trial by jury in New England for manufacturing liquor in violation of the federal prohibition law resulted in acquittal of the defendants, Louis Barrows and Maude S. Barrows of New Bedford, yesterday. Elmer Sedgwick, editor of the Atlantic Monthly, was foreman at the federal district court jury, which reached its verdict after an hour's deliberation.

Prohibition enforcement officers testified that they found the men on June 15, last, on a road eight miles out of New Bedford, apparently leaving a slanty in which six stills, warm from recent operation, were later discovered. Barrows had a bottle of moonshine whiskey in his pocket, an overcoat belonging to him was found in the shack and, after denying knowledge of the stills, he admitted making liquor with them. It was testified, in defense Barrows repudiated the confession and said his coat was left in the shack to dry after a rainstorm.

In the next case before the court John Gonzales of New Bedford pleaded guilty to operating a still and was sentenced to six months in jail. This was the first sentence under the prohibition law in this section.
